

Training for You Cache LEVEL 3 Diploma in Playwork (QCF)

The Level 3 Diploma in Playwork is for those working or wishing to work in a senior role with children and young people between 4-16 years of ages in a variety of play environments. This course will help you to improve your knowledge and skills, undertake professional development. It allows you to work as a senior playworker. You will learn about introduction to play and playwork, ways in which playworkers relate to, support and safeguard children and young people, the playworker's roles and responsibilities, the playworker's legal and managerial roles and responsibilities and reflective playwork in practice. There are no formal entry qualifications for this qualification, but you must be at least eighteen years old at the date of registration and it is recommended that you have a related study course at Level 2, an adequate level of general education to cope with the demands of the programme e.g. GCSE grade C or above or equivalent a minimum of 50 hours recent experience in a playwork setting, day-to-day contact with children in a playwork setting.

The course is divided into 3 sections The Award, The Certificate and The Diploma in Playwork.

CACHE Level 3 Award in Playwork

Unit 1 is an introduction to play and playwork and managing a playwork setting. It covers

Values and professional context and key aspects of playwork practice. On completion, a Candidate will have a Level 3 Award in Playwork. This gives the learner 12 credits.

CACHE Level 3 Certificate in Playwork

On completion of Units 1-5 Candidates will gain the Level 3 Certificate in Playwork and 32 credits. Units include Understanding the Framework for Play, Understanding Relationships in the Play Environment and How to Plan and Support Self –Directed Play.

CACHE Level 3 Diploma in Playwork

The Diploma consists of Units 1-6, covering subjects such as children's rights and providing safe and secure play environments as a manager. The learners also choose from a number of optional units to make the credits up to 65 for the full diploma.

Assessment

The course will be delivered through Onefile our e-portfolio system by qualified tutors and assessors. At the end of each section an assessor will visit your workplace to assess your practice which will have been arranged in advance between you. All units are internally assessed. Assessment in the learner's workplace will provide evidence for individual units and the whole qualification. There will be various methods of assessment including observation, work tasks and reflection, all of which will be explained by the assessor. In order to complete the course you will need to have access to a computer and the internet. Without these it will be impossible for you to complete as all knowledge – based assessments will be done on-line. If there are any problems with this there will be plenty of support from the office and you will be given the times that this is available.

The course fee is £950.00
